Newsletter

Vol. - II, Issue - I
January - December, 2023

Message from the Editor-in-Chief :

Dr. Phatik Tamuli
Principal

It is my honour and privilege to bring you the second issue of the Newsletter. This Newsletter is a regular and centralized source of information for teachers and students; keeping everyone informed of important events and updates of the institution. The Newsletter presents the contributions of teachers particularly in academic arena as well as the achievements of students and showcasing their success stories. I would like to extend my gratitude to the contributors to make this publication a reality. I believe that the tradition of publication of Newsletter would enhance the documentation culture and would absolutely ignite the minds of readers, by way of providing larger visibility, transparency and dimension to the institution.

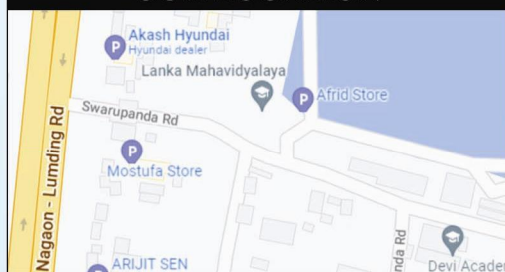

Editorial :

It gives me immense pleasure to publish the second issue of Newsletter of Lanka Mahavidyalaya. Newsletter usually serves a few purposes such as encouraging the college community to develop their respective domain and reflect the annual achievements of the faculty members and the students. Moreover, this second issue of the newsletter treasures all achievements, activities, publications and recognition that the institution had received in the year 2023. This would definitely encourage the entire college community to thrash out in their respective domain. Finally, I convey my sincere thanks to all the faculty members for providing related informations to publish the Newsletter in this short span of time.
