The Assam College Librarians' Association (ACLA) is a state level premier association of librarians established in 1973. It represents those who work in or advocate for college libraries of Assam. ACLA is committed to the cause of college library movement and development in Assam and working whole heartedly for the academic and social status of the college librarians and also for the development of the library profession. ACLA has provided a wide variety of services and programs to its members and other academic communities.

About the Webinar :

ATMANIRBHAR BHARAT, a mission undertaken by the Govt. of India to establish the five pillars of self reliant India namely -- Economy, Infrastructure, System, Demography and Demand. It envisions the need to focus on Land, Labour, Liquidity and Laws. It caters to the necessity of Labourers, Middle Class, Cottage Industry, MSMEs and Industries among others. It projects the need to undertake bold reforms which includes agriculture, rationalisation of tax system, capable human resources, simple and clear laws and strong financial system.

In this new millenium and this pandemic India faces a major challenges of evolving as a self-reliant nation. This issue has been adressed in an appreciable way by the Govt. of India as they have introduced the Atmanirbhar Bharat Scheme. It will not only uplift India's status as a nation but also eradicate a lot of social evils like poverty, unemployment etc. It is of great significance to understand and respond with sensibility to such noble initiative.

In this repard, Faculty of Commerce and IQAC, Lanka Mahavidyalaya, in association with Assam College Librarians' Association have organised a one day National Webinar on “Atmanirbhar Bharat : A Road Ahead” on 31st July, 2020. Prof. Amalesh Bhowal, Department of Commerce, Assam University (Diphu Campus) and Dr. Ranjit Singh, Associate Professor-IIT, Allahabad will increase the Sanctity of the same with their gracious presence as Resource Persons. Let us all get enlightened by Knowledge and Wisdom as India steps into the realm of self reliance.
